

ANNEX I*

QUESTIONNAIRE

PUBLIC LAW AND SOLIDARITY

1. What is the function of solidarity in a legal system?
2. How is solidarity reflected in national laws?
3. What is the dimension of solidarity on a regional and international level?
4. In which ways can a state enhance solidarity between its citizens?
5. What is the role of intergenerational equity in the promotion of solidarity?
6. What would be the benefits of states by setting solidarity as the tool for achieving intragenerational equity?
7. The relationship between solidarity and sustainable development.

---

* A questionnaire on the general theme of the Conference "Public Law and Solidarity" (Annex I) and a questionnaire on a more specific theme "Law and Solidarity between Riparian States" (Annex II) were sent to the national rapporteurs, who decided on which of the two they would elaborate depending on the capacities of their countries.

8. The role of solidarity in the provisions of national law concerning equality, with a particular emphasis on equality between nationals and foreigners.

9. How does solidarity form the purpose of the state? What is the link between solidarity and a welfare state?

10. Mechanisms for achieving solidarity as incorporated in a state's powers.

ANNEX II*

QUESTIONNAIRE

LAW AND SOLIDARITY BETWEEN RIPARIAN STATES

1. In which ways can a transboundary watercourse enhance solidarity between the riparian countries?
2. How is solidarity reflected in the interests of upstream and those of downstream states?
3. Can co-operation in good faith and good neighborliness, as principles of international law, guarantee the enhancement or even the establishment of solidarity between riparian countries?
4. In the case of solidarity between riparian states, how are anthropocentric approaches being reflected?
5. Integrated water resources management as a tool for achieving solidarity between states.
6. What is the relationship between equitable utilization of watercourses and environmental security? How is this relationship reflected in a country's population?

---

* A questionnaire on the general theme of the Conference "Public Law and Solidarity" (Annex I) and a questionnaire on a more specific theme "Law and Solidarity between Riparian States" (Annex II) were sent to the national rapporteurs, who decided on which of the two they would elaborate depending on the capacities of their countries.

7. The notion of sustainable development as it is reiterated in international law regarding transboundary fresh water resources.

8. What would be the benefits of riparian states by setting intergenerational equity as the goal of integrated water resources management?

9. What is the role of intragenerational equity in the promotion of solidarity as regards transboundary watercourses?